MEMORIAL OF ST. BLAISE BLESSING OF THE THROATS

Monday, February 3, 2025
8:30 AM Mass in English

St. Blaise was the Bishop of Sebaste in Armenia during the early fourth century. Very little is known about St. Blaise's life. However, according to various accounts, he was thought to have been a physician before he became bishop. St. Blaise has a reputation for interceding for those afflicted with illnesses of the throat after he miraculously cured a little boy from nearly dying because of a fishbone stuck in his throat. In the United States, it has become an annual tradition to bless throats on February 3rd, in memory of St. Blaise, Patron of Throat Illnesses.

There will be blessing of throats after the 8:30 AM Mass on Monday, February 3, 2025.

MEMORIA A SAN BLAS BENDICIÓN DE LAS GARGANTAS

Lunes, 3 de Febrero de 2025
8:30 AM Misa en inglés

San Blas fue obispo de Sebaste en Armenia a principios del siglo IV. Se sabe muy poco sobre la vida de San Blas. Sin embargo, según varios relatos, se pensaba que había sido médico antes de convertirse en obispo. San Blas tiene fama de interceder por aquellos afectados por enfermedades de la garganta después de que curó milagrosamente a un niño que casi muere a causa de una espina de pescado atascada en su garganta. En Estados Unidos, se ha convertido en una tradición anual bendecir las gargantas el 3 de febrero, en memoria de San Blas, patrón de las enfermedades de la garganta.

Habrà bendición de gargantas después de la Misa de las 8:30 AM el Lunes, 3 de Febrero de 2025.

SUNDAY ACTIVITIES
FOR CHILDREN

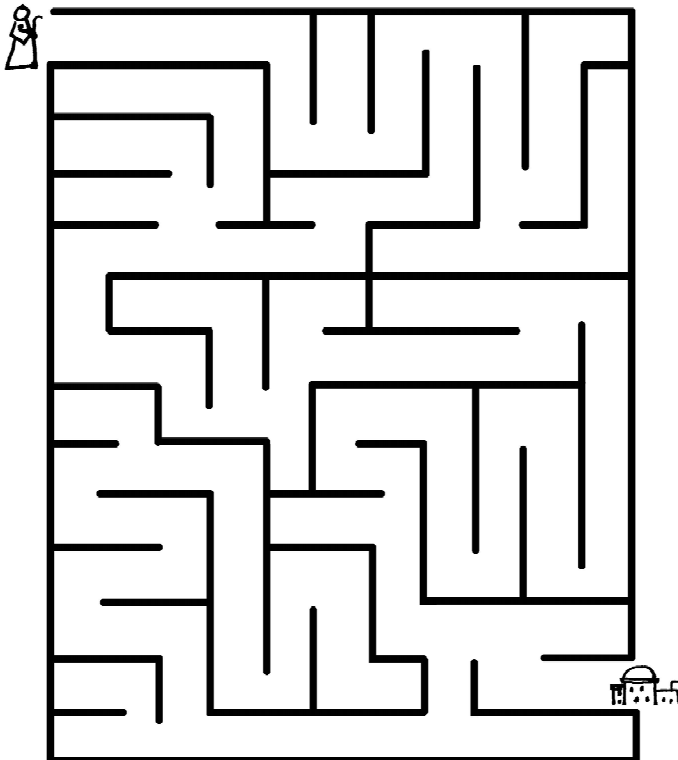

Make a Square. Play this fun game with a friend. Each of you takes turns connecting two lines together. When your line completes a square, you win that square. When you win a square, either write your initial in it or color it your color. Then you get another turn! The one with the most squares wins!

C10

Follow the Path. Jesus is on his way home to the town of Nazareth. It is a long way to Nazareth from the wilderness of Judea. Help him find the right path back to Nazareth.

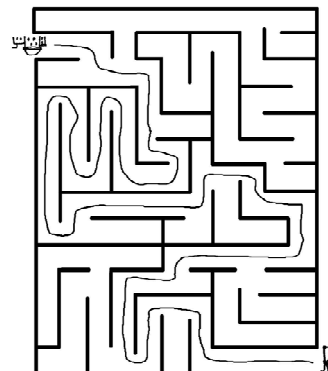

JESUS VISITS HIS HOME TOWN

(Nazareth, Galilee) — Jesus was getting ready to teach and preach God's message. He decided to begin in his hometown of Nazareth. He knew that some of the people in Nazareth might not listen to him. He knew they would say, "We knew you when you were just a small child. We used to help teach you. Do you think that you can teach us now?"

When Jesus got to Nazareth, he went to church. They let him read the Bible lesson. It was from the Book of Isaiah. Jesus read about how God's special messenger would rescue people who were in trouble. The people who were listening were sure that only God could do what Jesus' Bible reading said. But Jesus said, "These words from the Bible are talking about me."

The readings for the 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C, bring important themes to our faith. These themes help us understand God's word and how it guides our lives.

- Importance of Scripture: Nehemiah shows the people the importance of listening to God's word. Reading and understanding Scripture brings joy and strength.
- Unity in the Body of Christ: Paul talks about how every part of the body is important. This means every person in the Church is valuable and has a role.
- Joy in the Lord: Nehemiah reminds the people not to be sad but to rejoice in the Lord. Our strength comes from the joy we find in God.
- Jesus Fulfills Prophecy: In the Gospel, Jesus reads from Isaiah and says He fulfills this prophecy. This shows us Jesus is the promised Savior.
- Mission of Jesus: Jesus explains His mission to bring good news to the poor and freedom to the oppressed. He came to help and save everyone.
- Hearing and Doing: The readings encourage us to not just hear God's word but to act on it. We should live out our faith every day.
- Community Worship: Nehemiah gathers all people to hear God's word. Worshipping together strengthens our faith and community.
- Empowerment by the Spirit: Jesus starts His mission filled with the Holy Spirit. The Spirit helps us live out our mission too.

These themes show us the power of God's word and the importance of our role in the Church. They remind us to find joy in the Lord and to live out our faith together.

A NEW DAY DAWNS

The meaning of today's liturgy is subtle and many-layered. We need background to understand what's happening in today's First Reading.

Babylon having been defeated, King Cyrus of Persia decreed that the exiled children of Israel could return home to Jerusalem. They rebuilt their ruined temple (see Ezra 6:15–17) and under Nehemiah finished rebuilding the city walls (see Nehemiah 6:15).

The stage was set for the renewal of the covenant and the re-establishment of the Law of Moses as the people's rule of life. That's what's going on in today's First Reading, as Ezra reads and interprets (see Nehemiah 8:8) the Law and the people respond with a great "Amen!"

Israel, as we sing in today's Psalm, is rededicating itself to God and His Law. The scene seems like the Isaiah prophecy that Jesus reads from in today's Gospel.

Read all of Isaiah 61. The "glad tidings" Isaiah brings include these promises: the liberation of prisoners (61:1); the rebuilding of Jerusalem, or Zion (61:3–4; see also Isaiah 60:10); the restoration of Israel as a kingdom of priests (61:6; Exodus 19:6); and the forging of an everlasting covenant (61:8; Isaiah 55:3). It sounds a lot like the First Reading.

Jesus, in turn, declares that Isaiah's prophecy is fulfilled in Him. The Gospel scene, too, recalls the First Reading. Like Ezra, Jesus stands before the people, is handed a scroll, unrolls it, then reads and interprets it (compare Luke 4:16–17, 21 and Nehemiah 8:2–6, 8–10).

We witness in today's Liturgy the creation of a new people of God. Ezra started reading at dawn of the first day of the Jewish new year (see Leviticus 23:24). Jesus also proclaims a "sabbath," a great year of Jubilee, a deliverance from slavery to sin, a release from the debts we owe to God (see Leviticus 25:10).

The people greeted Ezra "as one man." And, as today's Epistle teaches, in the Spirit the new people of God—the Church—is made "one body" with Him. — from Scott Hahn

PRAYER

Dear Lord, help us to listen to Your word and understand its message. Fill us with the Holy Spirit to live out our mission and bring Your love to others. Guide us to use our gifts for the good of the Church and the world. Amen.

TODAY'S READINGS:

FIRST READING — Ezra reads the law to the people from morning until noon. The assembly responds with worship and tears, and Nehemiah encourages celebration and sharing, emphasizing joy in the LORD. (Nehemiah 8:2-4A, 5-6, 8-10)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM — The LORD's laws refresh and guide the soul, bringing joy and wisdom. His enduring commands foster a deep reverence that pleases Him. (Psalm 19)

SECOND READING — Christ's body, like a human body, consists of many parts, each unique and essential. Unity and diversity coexist, emphasizing mutual respect and shared responsibilities among all members. (1 Corinthians 12:12-30)

GOSPEL — Jesus returns to Galilee, teaches widely, and in Nazareth, reads from Isaiah, announcing the fulfillment of the prophecy, emphasizing his mission to liberate and heal, witnessed by his hometown. (Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21)

The Sacraments and Special Masses

BAPTISM:

Parents wishing to have their child baptized are asked to make an appointment by calling the office. All Baptisms are scheduled every Saturday unless told otherwise.

Baptisms in English are held at 11:00 AM and Baptisms in Spanish take place at 1:00 PM. The important paperwork that needs to be brought in order to schedule the Baptism are the following:

- Your child's birth certificate;
- Each sponsor needs to bring a copy of all three Sacraments which are Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation;
- If the parents are married, they will need to bring a copy of their marriage certificate (only married by the Catholic Church).

MATRIMONY:

Couples planning to marry should plan and make arrangements with the priest beforehand approximately from 1 year to 6 months prior to wedding date to allow sufficient time to complete our marriage preparation program.

If music is desired at the Wedding Mass or ceremony, our music director would be happy to meet with the couples and assist in planning their programs. Couples should also feel welcome to choose their own musician(s) and singer(s) instead. The music director should be notified so that the proper arrangements can be made for setting up the sound system and other logistics for them. Recorded music is not permitted.

OTHER SPECIAL MASSES (Quinceañera, 3 years, etc.):

When arranging for a Quinceañera or Sweet 16 it is required that the daughter's sacramental certificates (Baptism, First Communion, Confirmation) be brought to the meeting with the priest in the Rectory. Music is optional and can be provided by the music director or you are also free to hire mariachis instead, if desired. Recorded music is not permitted.

FUNERALS AND MEMORIAL MASSES:

Arrangement must be made with the funeral home and the Rectory office. Music is optional. Any special music requests should be arranged through the office or the parish music director. Recorded music is not permitted.

If you have any questions or concerns you may always contact the Rectory office at (718) 266-1612.
